AED Training

Today, Sunday, September 18th after worship

An automated external defibrillator (AED) is a lightweight, portable device that delivers an electric shock through the chest to the heart. The shock can stop an irregular heart rhythm and allow a normal rhythm to resume following sudden cardiac arrest. Sudden cardiac arrest is an abrupt loss of heart function. If it's not treated within minutes, it quickly leads to death. Did you know CMPC has an AED? Join us today after worship to learn or review how to use it.

Theology on Tap

Tuesday, September 20th at 7pm at Coho Grille

Theology on Tap is a gathering of CMPC men who discuss their faith over cold brewed beverages. If you haven't been able to make it before, make this gathering the one!

September Women for Women- Coffee and Donuts at the Labyrinth Saturday, September 24th at 9 a.m.

Start your Saturday morning off with Dunkin' Donuts and the women of CMPC! We'll be gathering in our outdoor chapel area in the field by the church (weather permitting). Stop by and join us for some fellowship and to learn more about our new prayer labyrinth. It's a great opportunity to get to know others from our congregation, and we look forward to having some members from our sister church, Trinity Presbyterian in Baltimore, with us that day. Guests are encouraged and welcomed. No RSVPs needed.

Wednesday Evening Bible Study

The Wednesday evening bible study group will be studying the book of Romans this year. Meetings are at the home of Maha Davies the 2nd and 4th Wednesday's of the month at 7:00 p.m. beginning in October and ending in May. ## Music Notes this Week

Composer/arranger Lloyd Larson said he arranged selections for the piano book the prelude is taken from to purposely include "old" and "new" music. So many congregations, including ours, worship with a variety of music. He says, "Worship is worship" through all genres of Christian compositions. He joins three great hymns of faith in the prelude arrangement. The chorus for the first title, The Heart of Worship, is: "I'm coming back to the heart of worship, and it's all about You, all about You, Jesus. I'm sorry Lord for the thing I've made it, when it's all about You, it's all about You Jesus." The general thought about coming to worship continues with the second part of the arrangement, Brethren We Have Met to Worship. The lyrics for the first verse are: "Brethren, we have met to worship, and adore the Lord our God; Will you pray with all your power, while we try to preach the Word? All is vain unless the Spirit of the Holy One comes down; brethren, pray, and holy manna will be showered all around." The last part of the arrangement, Holy, Holy, Holy includes these words in one verse: "Only Thou art holy; there is none beside Thee, perfect in power, in love, and purity," completing the idea of the fact that we come together to worship our Lord.

The opening hymn, Awaken the Dawn, was composed by Stuart Garrard (recorded by the Christian band Delirious.) The composer says in an online video that he had Lamentations 3:22-23 in mind when he wrote the song, which says: The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

The Word in Music, sung by the Trinity Choir, is Better Is One Day by Matt Redman (recorded by Chris Tomlin.) The lyrics for the piece are from Psalm 84, which begins: How lovely is your dwelling place, O Lord, almighty. For my soul longs and even faints for You. For here my heart is satisfied within Your presence. I sing beneath the shadow of Your wings.

The words for the postlude piece, Proclaim the Glory of the Lord tell us to "Proclaim the glory of the Lord, let every tongue confess He reigns lift up His name in praises forever . . . Take up the call, let every nation know . . . He is our Messiah, our Savior and our King . . .!"
