Worship Music this Week:

The words for the prelude piece, When in Our Music God Is Glorified, were written by Fred Green in 1972 (music composed by Charles Stanford in 1904) for occasions celebrating music. The text speaks about how human song gives voice to creation, how music can convey new insight, how sung faith has kept the church authentic, how Jesus relied on the psalms, and how sound can be praise (info from the Glory to God hymnal.)

Today the Trinity Choir will offer three anthems during worship, on their last Sunday to sing as a group until September. Many of the anthems, as well as the Christmas cantata, Jesus, The Advent of the Messiah, this season have focused on Jesus, i.e., His name, His love, and His forgiveness.

The Word in Music, Jesus Is the Friend Who's Always There (sung on October 22, 2017), is written in southern gospel style. It includes the familiar tune What a Friend We Have in Jesus in an arrangement that is syncopated and up-tempo, that also includes original words and music. The song reminds us of the assurance of Christ's presence in our lives.

Jesus Is Lord, was the Easter anthem (April 1, 2018.) The writing team of Keith Getty and Stuart Townend composed it in 2003. It is a very powerful song that begins this way: "Jesus is Lord! the cry that echoes through creation: resplendent pow'r, eternal Word, our rock. The Son of God, the King whose glory fills the heavens . . ." and goes on to say, "Jesus is Lord, the tomb is gloriously empty! Not even death could crush this King of love! The price is paid, the chains are loosed, and we're forgiven, and we can run into the arms of God."

Jesus, Only Jesus is an anthem that was sung on November 26, 2017, which was Christ the King Sunday. Written by several well-known musicians, including Matt Redman and Chris Tomlin, the lyrics ask a series of questions; i.e., "Who has the power to raise the dead? Who can save us from our sin?" and "Who can make the blind to see? Who holds the keys that set us free?" The response is always "Jesus, only Jesus!"

When in Our Music God Is Glorified

arr. L. Larson

1 Chronicles 16:7-11: That day David first appointed Asaph and his associates to give praise to the Lord in this manner:

Give praise to the Lord, proclaim his name; make known among the nations what he has done.

Sing to him, sing praise to him; tell of all his wonderful acts. Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice. Look to the Lord and his strength; seek his face always.

Silent Prayer of Confession

Common Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, have mercy on us, for we have failed to be faithful to you, though you have been faithful to us. You show us your wisdom, but we prefer to go our own way. Our broken relationships with you and one another have created poverty in us and our neighbors. In your mercy, reconcile us to you and one another for the work of justice, peace, and love, through Jesus Christ, our redeemer. Amen.

All-Church Mission Trip

Once again this summer a group of folks from CMPC (and other churches) will descend upon Mars Hill, NC from July 8-14 for a week of hands-on mission work with our brothers and sisters in need. All ages are encouraged to join the group for this fun-filled and meaningful week of mission work. Children age birth to 11 years enjoy a day of VBS on a beautiful college campus while anyone over the age of 11 heads off to participate in home repair and refurbishment projects throughout the area. No specific skills are needed and a wide range of projects will be available. If you are interested in joining the CMPC delegation be sure to contact Pastor Scott at pastor.hoffman@cmpecusa.org or 410-997-8011.

VBS starts in just over 2 weeks and the VBS team has been working hard to get everything together. Thank you to all of you who have offered to donate materials and snacks for the week. We are also in need of all sizes of clear, empty, plastic bottles (Gatorade, water, etc...) There are baskets/crates in the lobby for these donations. Please don't forget to bring them in as soon as you are able.

We still need some help in other ways! First, we are in need of tailgating canopies for some shade during our many VBS activities. The canopies are only needed for the week and can be delivered back to your home immediately after the conclusion of VBS on Friday, June 29th. Second, we need your help decorating the church! Our decoration nights are Wednesday, June 13th and Wednesday, June 20th starting at 6:30 pm. No skills are required and all materials will be provided! If you have any questions, please email Meghan Jones at meghanrjones@gmail.com. Thank you for all of your support!
