Open My Eyes That I May See

*Silent Prayer of Confession

*Common Prayer of Confession

Lord, we have sinned, without considering how much you love us. You see our sins more clearly than we can ourselves. Lord, you know when we are indifferent to your Word, the Bible; how often we forget to pray; the times we come unwillingly to worship. And yet, we turn to you when we are in trouble. Lord, you know when we are untruthful and when we think evil of others. You see our anger and unfairness to our friends. You know how hard it is for us to forgive. Forgive us and make us clean, so that we can obey your call to take up your cross and follow you. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

*Assurance of Pardon

L- Friends, hear this good news: Christ died for us, Christ rose for us, Christ reigns in power for us, Christ prays for us.

P- Everyone who is in Christ is a new creation. The old is finished and gone, everything has become fresh and new.

L- Believe the good news of the Gospel!

P- In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. Amen

Then will I hear from heaven, then will I hear from heaven; then will I hear and will forgive, forgive their sin. If my people, which are called by My name, shall humble themselves, shall humble themselves and pray, I will forgive their sin I will forgive their sin, I will forgive their sin, and heal their land.” (Bud Johnson Songs, Inc., 1973)

Drawing on the phrasing of Isaiah 55:12, this joyful sending hymn was created by a musical Canadian father and daughter, beginning with the tune that emerged from a four-hand piano improvisation. The completed hymn later served as the recessional music for her wedding.
