Faithfulness Received, Faithfulness Returned – Annual Operating Budget (AOB)

God's word promises us in Numbers 23:19 that God is perfectly faithful, steadfast, and true. Our God is wholly faithful to us. No matter what we do, the Lord will be there for us...that's faithfulness received. Likewise, it is important to be faithful to God...i.e. faithfulness returned. Faithfulness requires us to realize that we are in need of a Savior and that God is in control of our lives. We are to be faithful to God, because God is faithful to us.

As we embark on our third and final capital campaign, I would like to remind everyone that we also have a need to increase our Annual Operating Budget over the next few years in order to cover the costs of our monthly mortgage debt. To that end, I kindly ask each of you to pray on how to grow in your faithfulness and consider a small increase in your pledge to the Annual Operating Budget, knowing that each increase "received" will be "returned" to the glory of God through the expanded and faithful ministry of CMPC in years to come.

In Christ,
Jennifer Weinel
Annual Operating Budget Campaign Leader

Shawl Ministry

Did You Know- that the Prayer Shawl Ministry has existed for over 15 years, that we have met via Zoom throughout the pandemic to knit and crochet shawls, baby blankets, hats and pocket prayers while supporting each other and adding prayers for those who receive them?

Did You Know- that hundreds of members or friends have received shawls for joys, sorrows, or celebrating life events and have sent us notes to tell us what they have meant to them?

Did You Know- that you could join us on Thursday mornings, 10am to 11:30 via the Zoom link that you can obtain through the office (office@cmpcusa.org) or contact Laura Frantz (franz4ever@gmail.com) for more information.

Join the Handbell Choir!

The CMPC Handbell Choir, Bells of Joy is recruiting new ringers. Although the ability to read music is a plus, it is definitely not a requirement! We can teach you how to play handbells. The Handbell Choir typically plays for the worship service about once a month and practices at 8:00 pm on Wednesdays in the sanctuary. For more information, contact Sally Berlowitz (sberlowitz@verizon.net) or Cindy Pettit (cindycpettit@gmail.com).

The Monday Morning Women's Bible Study Group

Come join the Monday Morning Women's Bible Study Group. We meet every second and fourth Mondays of each month from 9:30-11:30 in the Trinity Room of the church. Members enjoy prayer time, Bible study, fellowship, and mission projects as well as regular lunch outings. The group meets from September to May. We will be using Erica Wiggerhorn's Unexplainable Jesus book and DVDs in our study this year. All women of the church and members of the community are welcome to participate in this loving Christ-centered group. Please contact Miriam Miller at 410-531-6528, or jtmillerj@verizon.net or Barbara Petro at 410-300-6279 or bapetro@aol.com for more details.

Although this ancient text has often been used at church dedications, the first stanza clearly refers to the people of God and the second to the place where they meet. The stately and soaring tune is aptly named for the edifice where the composer served as organist and is buried.

 2 When I walk through the shades of death your pres-ence is my stay;

 There would I find a set - tled rest, while oth - ers go and come;

 my cup with bless - ings o - ver - flows; your oil a - noints my head.
 no more a strang - er, or a guest, but like a child at home.

The effectiveness of this beloved paraphrase of Psalm 23 owes much to the flowing shape note melody that serves as a "living stream" to carry the text, which in turn has been given a remarkable clarity and lightness through the poet's masterful use of single-syllable words.

In honestly admitting the limits of human ability, this prayerful hymn does not seek a sense of God's presence for self-comfort but for strength and companionship in pursuing the tasks that God sets before us. The author specifically chose this tune to accompany his words.
