Prelude

What a Friend We Have in Jesus

arr. L. Shackley

John 15:13: Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends.

"What a friend we have in Jesus, all our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry everything to God in prayer!
O what peace we often forfeit; O what needless pain we bear;
all because we do not carry everything to God in prayer!"

(words by J.J. Scriven, 1855; music by C.C. Converse, 1868; words and music are public domain)

Welcome and Announcements

Passing of the Peace (L: Leader; P: People)

L: The peace of Christ be with you.

P: And also with you.

*Call to Worship

Todd Stubbs

L: God built the heavens, the earth, and everything in them.

P: God calls us to be builders as well.

L: God calls us to build our lives:

P: to restore broken places and continue to grow.

L: God calls us to build our faith:

P: to study the Word and ponder its interpretation.

L: God calls us to build our community:

P: to build bridges of understanding and systems of justice.

L: God calls us to build history by fulfilling the promises of Scripture:

P: to preach the good news of God's love and liberation for all people.

*Hymn - 409

God Is Here

*Silent Prayer of Confession

*Common Prayer of Confession

God of our Restoration, whenever we come home to you, we realize how far we have strayed and how much we have forgotten of your law and love. We have not loved you with our whole hearts or loved our neighbors as ourselves. Forgive us, heal us, and restore us to our relationship with you; through Jesus Christ, in whom we trust. Amen.

*Assurance of Pardon

L: Friends, this is the Good News of the Gospel...

P: ...in Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Thanks be to God!

*Response – 515

I Come with Joy
I come with joy, a child of God,
forgiven, loved, and free,
the life of Jesus to recall,
in love laid down for me,
in love laid down for me.

Jesus, What a Friend for Sinners

arr. J. Bennett

Romans 5:8: But God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

"Jesus, what a Friend for sinners! Jesus, lover of my soul. Friends may fail me, foes assail me, He, my Savior, makes me whole. Hallelujah, what a Savior! Hallelujah, what a Friend! Saving, helping, keeping, loving, He is with me to the end."

Postlude

Send the Light

arr. M. McDonald

Ephesians 5:8: For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light.

“Let us pray that grace may ev’rywhere abound, “Send the light! Send the light!” And a Christ-like spirit ev’rywhere be found, send the light! Send the light! Send the light, the blessed gospel light; let it shine from shore to shore! Send the light the blessed gospel light; let it shine forevermore!”

(words and music (tune McCabe) are by C. Gabriel, 1890; words and music are public domain)
(this piano solo: Hal Leonard Corporation, 2010)

Child Protection Training

Sunday, January 30, 2022 @ 12:00

Mark your calendars! This training is for all adults who work with children and youth, but have not yet attended the Child Protection training at CMPC. If you attended and were trained at the January 2020 child protection training, you do not need to attend this unless you'd like a refresher. This will be an in person and virtual training. We will switch to entirely virtual if needed. Zoom link to come. Questions: please contact Lindsey Kim at lindseyathorne@yahoo.com. RSVP here:

Talks on Race & Racism

In 2020 the Christian Education committee hosted a discussion of Race & Racism for our congregation. Approximately 48 people participated in at least one discussion with an average of 25 people attending each time. After this series ended, CE polled participants to determine the next steps in moving forward with this discussion. Participants indicated a preference for an outside speaker. Pastor Scott pursued a few possibilities for organizations to facilitate this formal discussion and then recommended The Center, a mission organization of the Baltimore Presbytery. The CE committee has arranged for The Center to provide a program that will lead the next part of this discussion. All members of our congregation are invited to participate in this program.

The Center will lead sessions on January 23, January 30, February 20, and February 27 by Zoom. Each of the four sessions will meet from 7:00pm to 8:30pm. The purpose of the program is to learn how to engage responsibly in our community, with a particular focus on antiracist practices.

Register in advance for this meeting:

Contact Debbie ONeal (oneal04@aol.com) if you have questions.

Summary of January 15, 2022 Session Meeting

The Session voted unanimously to approve the 2022 Budget as prepared by the Finance Committee and to set Feb. 6 as the date of the annual congregational meeting following worship service. The budget will be presented that day, and the congregation will vote on the 2022 Pastor's Terms of Call.

In other business, the Session elected the following persons:

Bob Ashman and Joyce Danzig as Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer, respectively;
Judy Brown as Nominating Committee chair;
Don Mitchell as Personnel Committee chair;
Janene Holzberg as Clerk of Session;
and as the Board of Trustees, as stipulated in church bylaws: President, Jeff Bloom; Vice President, Rick Mills; Secretary, Janene Holzberg; and Treasurer, Bob Ashman.

The session also decided to maintain the current COVID protocols and to revisit the matter at the February meeting.

Congregational Meeting

The session has called a Congregational meeting for Sunday, February 6 following worship. The 2022 Budget will be presented and the Pastor's Terms of Call will be brought for vote. All members are encouraged to attend.

2022 Giving Envelopes

If you are planning to make contributions to CMPC via cash or check and would like a box of giving envelopes, please contact Joyce Danzig at Joyce.Danzig@gmail.com.

Investment &
Loan
Program Inc.

Investing in Our Future

In addition to the tremendous support from the congregation through our capital campaigns, the renovation and construction work for our Ministry Expansion is being financed by borrowing from the Presbyterian Investment and Loan Program (PILP). In order to qualify for the best interest rate, we need to have $300,000 invested in the PILP program by members and friends of CMPC. Many of our members and friends are already participating, but our investment total recently fell below the $300,000 minimum. If you have investments that you could transfer to PILP, or if you could add to your existing PILP investment, it would greatly benefit CMPC by keeping our interest rate low. PILP offers term notes (like CDs) and money market type accounts. If you have a self-directed IRA, those funds can be invested in PILP as well. For more information about how to invest and the benefits of investing with PILP, please visit their website at <https://pilp.pcusa.org/>. If you would like to speak to someone who has already invested please contact Bob Ashman (rta3512@gmail.com) and he will be happy to connect you with someone. Thank you for your continued support.

Valentines for College Students

The Care & Wellness Committee likes to keep in touch with the college students in our congregation. We would like to send them a Valentine's card to let them know that we are thinking of them. If you have a student in college, graduate school, technical school, or professional school, please send their name and address to Kris Bloom (kcbloom@verizon.net), even if they are living at home, by Sunday, January 30, 2022. If you sent their names in the Fall, please send again to verify that they are still at the same address. Please help us to stay in touch! Thank you!

Request for Greeting Cards

The Care & Wellness Committee sends Birthday Wishes, Thinking of You, Get Well, and Sympathy cards to members of the church on a regular basis. We use 40+ birthday cards almost every month and 10-20 other cards. If you have any cards listed above or plain blank cards that you would like to donate to this worthwhile ministry, please drop them off to the church office. Thank you in advance for your kindness.

Campaign Updates

On December 5 we were able to announce good news about our third capital campaign. The numbers have increased since that Sunday, and so we are sharing them below. Thank you again to everyone who participated. Your leadership, pledges and prayers will enable Christ Memorial Presbyterian Church to continue sharing its mission and ministry with the community and the world. We are so blessed!

2022 Operating Campaign

86 households pledged $361,026

3rd Capital Campaign

83 households pledge $1,385,810

If you would still like to participate, please contact the church office for a pledge card or pledge online (see below for more information).

Online Pledging Comes to CMPC

The capability to pledge online through the CMPC Bridge is now available for the annual Operating Budget, also known as the General Fund, and the "Faithfulness Received, Faithfulness Returned" ministry expansion capital campaign. Please complete only one of the online "pledge card" or a paper pledge card; do not complete both. Detailed instructions on how to pledge online are available on the CMPC blog. If you have any questions, please contact Joyce Danzig at joyce.danzig@gmail.com.

(Over)

Commissioned for the dedication of a renovated worship space in Austin, Texas, this text is one of the few to devote attention to how customary church features facilitate worship. The tune was composed in wartime Britain to replace a Haydn tune tainted by Nazi associations.

Guitar chords do not correspond with keyboard harmony.

This text affirms that Christian unity is not achievement but gift, one renewed each time we gather for the Lord's Supper. Each of us enters as an "I" and leaves as part of "we." The unadorned language of this text is well matched to the simple shape note tune that sets it here.

459 O Word of God Incarnate

1 O Word of God in - car - nate, O Wis - dom from on high,
 2 The church from you, dear Sav - ior, re - ceived this gift di - vine;
 3 O make your church, dear Sav - ior, a lamp of pur - est gold

O Truth un - changed, un - chang - ing, O Light of our dark sky:
 and still that light is lift - ed on all the earth to shine.
 to bear be - fore the na - tions your true light, as of old;

we praise you for the ra - diance that from the hal - lowed page,
 It is the chart and com - pass that, all life's voy - age through,
 O teach your wan - dering pil - grims by this our path to trace,

a lan - tern to our foot - steps, shines on from age to age.
 a - mid the rocks and quick - sands still guides, O Christ, to you.
 till, clouds and storms thus end - ed, we see you face to face.

The opening four lines of this hymn celebrate attributes of Christ that are revealed through holy Scripture, which serves as a lantern, a chart, and a compass for the church in seeking to know Christ better. The setting of the tune comes from Felix Mendelssohn's Elijah.

This hymn is a classic example of how Isaac Watts Christianized the Psalms, in this case Psalm 72:5–19, by turning their messianic language to New Testament equivalents. The tune was at first nameless and anonymous, but is now called by the address of the supposed composer.
