Prelude

Lead Me to Calvary

arr. C. Berry

1 Peter 2:24: He Himself bore our sins in His body on the cross, so that we might die to sin and live to righteousness; for by His wounds you were healed.

"King of my life I crown Thee now, Thine shall the glory be; lest I forget Thy thorn-crowned brow, lead me to Calvary. Lest I forget Gethsemane, lest I forget Thine agony; lest I forget Thy love for me, lead me to Calvary. May I be willing, Lord, to bear daily my cross for Thee; even Thy cup of grief to share, Thou hast borne all for me. Lest I forget Gethsemane, lest I forget Thine agony; lest I forget Thy love for me, lead me to Calvary."

(words by J. Hussey, 1921; music (Duncannon) by W. Kirkpatrick, 1920; words and music are public domain)

Christ Is Made the Sure Foundation

*Silent Prayer of Confession

*Common Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, you set us within the temple of your grace and mercy, hear us now as we confess our sin. We still carry our business into your sanctuary. As we enter our motives are not just to worship your name. We want our needs met rather than Christ's will that calls us. We seek our own satisfaction before we can turn to your ways. As Christ got angry and overturned the tables, keep us from receiving what may be our due. Rather hear our confession and forgive us our sin. Amen.

*Assurance of Pardon

L: Friends, this is the Good News of the Gospel...

P: ...in Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Thanks be to God!

*Response – 447

We Are Forgiven

We are forgiven. We are forgiven.
Thanks be to God. Thanks be to God.
We are forgiven. We are forgiven.
Thanks be to God. Thanks be to God.

Word in Music

A Lenten Introspection
Bells of Joy

arr. M. Compton

Isaiah 53:4: Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

“Stricken, smitten, and afflicted, see him dying on the tree! Tis the Christ, by man rejected; yes, my soul, ‘tis he, ‘tis he. ‘Tis the long-expected Prophet, David’s Son, yet David’s Lord; proofs I see sufficient of it; ‘tis the true and faithful Word.”

(based on the hymn tune O Mein Jesu, Ich Muss Sterben (Stricken, Smitten, and Afflicted) by T. Kelly, 1804)

Offertory

In the Cross of Christ I Glory

arr. G. Sewell

Galatians 6: 14: May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

“In the cross of Christ I glory, towering o’er the wrecks of time; all the light of sacred story gathers round its head sublime. When the woes of life o’ertake me, hopes deceive, and fears annoy; never shall the cross forsake me. Lo! it glows with peace and joy.”

(words by J. Bowring, 1825; music (Rathbun) by I. Conkey, 1851; words and music are public domain)

*Doxology - 710

We Lift Our Voices
We lift our voices;
we lift our hands;
we lift our lives up to you:
we are an offering.

Lord, use our voices;
Lord, use our hands;
Lord, use our lives;
they are yours:
we are an offering.

All that we have,
all that we are,
all that we hope to be,
we give to you,
we give to you.

We lift our voices;
we lift our hands;
we lift our lives up to you:
we are an offering;
we are an offering.

Postlude

In the Cross of Christ I Glory

arr. R. Lau

Hebrews 12:2: . . . looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

"Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure, by the cross are sanctified; peace is there that knows no measure, joys that through all time abide. In the cross of Christ I glory, towering o'er the wrecks of time; all the light of sacred story gathers round its head sublime."

Nominating Process

As the Nominating Committee begins its discernment process in the coming months we believe it is imperative for the entire congregation to understand that currently our board of Deacons is operating with the minimum number of deacons allowable by our bylaws (12) and the Session is operating with only one elder more than the minimum (13). This means that without full slates (and then some) this year we risk being in violation of our own bylaws and seriously hampering the work of our two leadership boards. So, we ask each and every member of the congregation to seriously and prayerfully consider accepting a call to serve if it should come from the nominating committee and to also prayerfully consider self-nominating or nominating others when the time arises. These are exciting times in the life of CMPC and we need willing and faithful leaders to guide us in and through them. Thank you in advance for seriously considering the call to serve!

Pine Springs Summer Camp—Director here TODAY

“To provide all campers with a vital encounter with Jesus Christ that leads to growth in Christian faith and discipleship” is the mission of Pine Springs Camp—a Presbyterian summer camp located in Jennerstown, PA. Pine Springs, beloved by the Hoffman family and a favorite of more and more families of the church and community, is the place where you should consider sending your children or grandchildren for an incredible week of fun and faith development. To provide an introduction to the camp and answer any questions you might have, Summer Camp Director Mike Hurley will be at CMPC today. Mike will speak briefly in worship and then have a fuller presentation in the afternoon at 1:00 pm in the Trinity Room. Please plan to attend if you have interest.

Guitar chords do not correspond with keyboard harmony.

Although this ancient text has often been used at church dedications, the first stanza clearly refers to the people of God and the second to the place where they meet. The stately and soaring tune is aptly named for the edifice where the composer served as organist and is buried.

To sing, rather than simply say, a response to the Declaration of Forgiveness has the effect of making the moment both more affirmative and more corporate. The musical repetition of the two sentences also strengthens awareness of what it means to be assured of God's pardon.

Like Isaac Watts's "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" (nos. 223, 224), this hymn is a reflection on Galatians 6:14, but this text is more abstract and devotes no attention to the person hanging on the cross. The tune is named for a soloist in the composer's Connecticut choir.

We Lift Our Voices

We Are an Offering

We lift our voices; we lift our hands; we lift our lives up to you: we are an of-fer-ing. Lord, use our lives; they are yours: we are an of-fer-ing.

 All that we have, all that we are, all that we hope to be, we give to you, we give to you. We lift our voice - es; we lift our hands; we lift our lives up to you:
 we are an of-fer-ing; we are an of-fer-ing.

This praise and worship song can best be understood as reflecting on and expanding 1 Chronicles 29:14b: "For all things come of you, [O Lord,] and of your own have we given you." There are also echoes of Paul's appeal for Christians to be living sacrifices (Romans 12:1).

Refrain

It is well with my soul;
 It is well with my soul;

This text is a remarkable expression of faith born of grief. The author, an active Presbyterian layman who had just lost four daughters in a tragic shipwreck, wrote it while sailing to Paris to meet his wife, who had survived. The tune was named for the ship that sank.

TRUSTING IN THE PROMISES OF GOD

it is well; it is well with my soul.

The image shows a musical score for two voices, likely soprano and alto, in a minor key. The title is "TRUSTING IN THE PROMISES OF GOD". The lyrics are "it is well; it is well with my soul." The music is written on two staves. The top staff uses a treble clef and the bottom staff uses a bass clef. The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes, with some dotted notes. The accompaniment is primarily chordal, with some moving lines in the bass staff.
