Word of God, Speak with Break Thou the Bread of Life

arr. C. Tornquist

Psalm 46:10: *"Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth."*

"I'm finding myself at a loss for words, and the funny thing is, it's okay. The last thing I need is to be heard, but to hear what You would say. Word of God, speak. Would You pour down like rain, washing my eyes to see,
Your majesty; to be still and know that You're in this place? Please let me stay and rest, in Your holiness.
Word of God, speak"

(this piano arrangement: Wordspring Music, LLC, 2002)

"Break thou the bread of life, dear Lord, to me, as thou didst break the loaves beside the sea.
Beyond the sacred page I seek thee, Lord. My spirit pants for thee, O living Word!"

Table for Five...Thousand!
The Miracle of the Loaves and Fishes

By Tom S. Long and Allen Pote

Christ Memorial Presbyterian Church
LOGOS Ministry
March 27, 2022

Table for Five...Thousand

Found in all four gospels, the story of Jesus feeding the five thousand reveals how one young child with five loaves of bread and two fish, along with his willingness to share, led to an event so startling that members of the crowd wanted to proclaim Jesus as King. Later, the event revealed an even greater truth as Jesus told his disciples, "I am the Bread of Life. Those who come to me will never go hungry." This inspiring musical underscores that the most humble among us, especially children, can do great things with God's help.

Scene 1

A long time ago in the country where Jesus was teaching and healing, there was a child named Bekah—the youngest in her family. Bekah, her family and friends, and community were excited about Jesus coming.

Jesus Is Coming!

Scene 2

Bekah knew she wasn't big or important like Jesus—or even a friend of Jesus. Still, she thought, maybe if she just watched and listened from a distance, no one would notice.

Come If You're Weary

Duet: Evie Bis and Zoe Kim

Dancer: Charlotte Carmean

Scene 3

As the morning passed slowly, Jesus continued to speak. Bekah learned something important about those who follow Jesus.

One Road

Scene 4

Jesus continued to preach as the day continued. Some of his disciples approached him about the hungry people and the need for them to eat.

Excuses

Scene 5

Bekah had an idea and a willingness to share and Jesus did something special with this young child's offering.

Be As Humble As a Child

Group: Evie Bis, Nathan Board, Ian Fieldsend, Meghan Jenkins, Zoe Kim, Nicholas Kitt, Callum McGillivray-Stubbs

The Miracle

Bread of Life

Scene 6

One young child was willing to share, and with God's help, reached thousands

Small Things

We are small, the world is wide, yet we stand tall with God inside.

Small things, small things, small things done with great love,

Can change the world.

Those who seem to be the weakest are the greatest in God's eyes.

Little hands we lift in service can touch the skies.

When we give away our treasure, when we sacrifice our lives,

When we lose our hearts to Jesus, love multiplies.

We are small, the world is wide, yet we stand tall with God inside.

Small things, small things, small things done with great love,

Can change the world.

Small things, small things, can change the world.

LOGOS is an intergenerational ministry designed to nurture children and youth into a relationship with God through Jesus Christ and to prepare them for a lifetime of Christian discipleship. Here at CMPC, our LOGOS program is a ministry that meets on Wednesday evenings from October-March and is open to all from pre-school-12th grade. LOGOS consists of four parts: Family Time (where LOGOS participants share a meal with their 'table parents'), Bible Time (a time for Bible Study), Recreation (fun!), and Worship Arts (e.g., choir, hand-bells, sanctuary art). Age groups include:

Preschool – BUGS (Bringing Up Gods Servants)

Elementary School – FROG (Fully Rely On God)

Middle School – ROCK (Reaching Out for Christ's Kingdom)

High School – FISH (Fellowship In Senior High)

Interested in participating in the fall? Please contact our LOGOS Directors, Ryan and Elyn Thomas (LOGOS@cmpcusa.org) for more information.

10,000 Reasons by Matt Redman

(chorus)

Bless the Lord oh my soul
Oh my soul
Worship His Holy name
Sing like never before
Oh my soul
I'll worship Your Holy name

Verse 1: The sun comes up
It's a new day dawning
It's time to sing Your song again
Whatever may pass
And whatever lies before me
Let me be singing
When the evening comes

(chorus)

Verse 2: You're rich in love
And You're slow to anger
Your name is great
And Your heart is kind
For all Your goodness
I will keep on singing
Ten thousand reasons
For my heart to find

(chorus)

Verse 3: And on that day
When my strength is failing
The end draws near
And my time has come
Still my soul will
Sing Your praise unending
Ten thousand years
And then forevermore

(chorus x2)

My Shepherd Will Supply My Need 803

(Psalm 23)

1 My shep-herd will sup - ply my need; Je - ho - vah is his name.
 2 When I walk through the shades of death your pres-ence is my stay;
 3 The sure pro - vi - sions of my God at - tend me all my days;

In pas - tures fresh he makes me feed, be - side the liv - ing stream.
 one word of your sup - port - ing breath drives all my fears a - way.
 O may your house be my a - bode, and all my work be praise.

He brings my wan - dering spir - it back when I for - sake his ways,
 Your hand, in sight of all my foes, does still my ta - ble spread;
 There would I find a set - tled rest, while oth - ers go and come;

and leads me, for his mer - cy's sake, in paths of truth and grace.
 my cup with bless - ings o - ver - flows; your oil a - noints my head.
 no more a strang - er, or a guest, but like a child at home.

The effectiveness of this beloved paraphrase of Psalm 23 owes much to the flowing shape note melody that serves as a "living stream" to carry the text, which in turn has been given a remarkable clarity and lightness through the poet's masterful use of single-syllable words.

The Stewardship Committee presents – Did you know?

Greetings! Once a month the Stewardship Committee hopes to share some interesting information about the work of Christ Memorial Presbyterian Church that is made possible by your gifts. We thank you for your financial support and hope that you can see God at work in our congregation.

This month we focus on music. Did you know that the beautiful music speaking to us each week could not happen without your support? The message is what matters. Through the instrumental music we can hear God's Word, even without any words. With singing, the music amplifies the Word's meaning. These messages must be in tune, on time, phrased correctly, and in a genre we all can appreciate. Buying well-arranged music, practicing each piece to perfection, tuning the instruments, repairing the instruments, hiring outside musicians for special services, and conducting extensive rehearsals all must come together to produce the inspiring music you hear each week, every week. We are so blessed with the dedicated and continuous, 7 days per week, efforts of our Music Director, Music Accompanist, and Handbell Choir Director, and all the participants in the two choirs.

But the effort alone is not enough. The venerable church organ, an electronic synthesizer whose aging electronic components and switches are failing, is almost unplayable, It's like a car with loose steering and failing brakes: so unpredictable while "driving". A $10,000 complete overhaul has begun, thanks to your donations. The superb Steinway piano, having 12,000+ different parts, requires continual tuning and upkeep, again supplied through your generosity. Every sheet of music used by the Trinity Choir must be an original copy, one per person. Although the Bells of Joy Handbell Choir can copy individual ringer's parts, it must purchase the entire package of all the parts. Your donations defray the $80 cost per title of music performed each service. The special services at Christmas and Easter require $1200 to $1500 each for the "guest" musicians who make the services very special. These are just a few examples. Many other incidental expenses also add up and your donations have paid for them. For all of this we thank you so very much.

Nominating Process

As the Nominating Committee begins its discernment process in the coming months we believe it is imperative for the entire congregation to understand that currently our board of Deacons is operating with the minimum number of deacons allowable by our bylaws (12) and the Session is operating with only one elder more than the minimum (13). This means that without full slates (and then some) this year we risk being in violation of our own bylaws and seriously hampering the work of our two leadership boards. So, we ask each and every member of the congregation to seriously and prayerfully consider accepting a call to serve if it should come from the nominating committee and to also prayerfully consider self-nominating or nominating others when the time arises. These are exciting times in the life of CMPC and we need willing and faithful leaders to guide us in and through them. Thank you in advance for seriously considering the call to serve!
