Prelude

Breathe On Me, Breath of God with Breathe
Psalm 150: 6: Let everything that has breath praise the Lord. Praise the Lord!

arr. V. Labenske

"Breathe on me, Breath of God, fill me with life anew; that I may love the way you love, and do what you would do."
(words by E. Hatch, 1878; music by R. Jackson, 1888; words and music are public domain)

"This is the air I breathe, this is the air I breathe; Your holy presence living in me. This is my daily bread, this is my daily bread; Your very word spoken to me. And I, I'm desperate for You.
And I, I'm lost without You. This is the air I breathe; this is the air I breathe."

Come, O Spirit, Dwell Among Us

*Silent Prayer of Confession

*Common Prayer of Confession

Spirit of God, you are the breath of creation, the wind of change that blows through our lives, opening us up to new dreams and new hopes, new life in Jesus Christ. Forgive us our closed minds, which barricade themselves against new ideas, preferring the past to what you might want to do through us tomorrow. Forgive our closed eyes, which fail to see the needs of your world, blind to opportunities of service and love. Forgive our closed hands, which clutch our gifts and our wealth for our own use alone. Forgive us our closed hearts, which limit our affections to ourselves and our own. Spirit of new life, forgive us and break down the prison walls of our selfishness, that we might be open to your love and open for service in your world, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

*Assurance of Pardon

L: Friends, this is the Good News of the Gospel...

P: ...in Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Thanks be to God!

*Response - 288

Every Time I Feel the Spirit

arr. P. Choplin

Job 33:4: The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

“Ev’ry time I feel the Spirit moving in my heart, I will pray. Yes, ev’ry time I feel the Spirit moving in my heart, I will pray. Upon the mountain when my God spoke, out of God’s mouth came fire and smoke. Looked all around me, it looked so fine; I asked my Lord if all was mine. Ev’ry time I feel the Spirit moving in my heart, I will pray. Yes, ev’ry time I feel the Spirit moving in my heart, I will pray.”

Holy Spirit, Rain Down

arr. C. Tornquist

Galatians 5:22a, 25: But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit.

"Holy Spirit rain down rain down, O Comforter and Friend, how we need Your touch again. Holy Spirit rain down, rain down; let Your power fall, let Your voice be heard. Come and change our hearts as we stand on Your Word; Holy Spirit rain down. No eye has seen, no ear has heard; no mind can know what God has in store. So open up heaven, open it wide; over Your church and over our lives. Let Your power fall, let Your voice be heard. Come and change our hearts as we stand on Your Word. Holy Spirit rain down."

Come, O Spirit, Dwell Among Us

Sung to the tune of What a Friend We Have in Jesus

(tune (Converse) is public domain)

Come, O Spirit, dwell among us;
come with Pentecostal power;
give the church a stronger vision;
help us face each crucial hour.
Built upon a firm foundation,
Jesus Christ, the Cornerstone,
still the church is called to mission that God's love shall be made known.

We would raise our alleluias for the grace of yesteryears;
for tomorrow's unknown pathway,
hear, O Lord, our humble prayers.
In the church's pilgrim journey
you have led us all the way;
still in presence move before us,
fire by night and cloud by day.

Come, O Spirit, dwell among us;
give us words of fire and flame.
Help our feeble lips to praise you,
glorify your holy name.
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
Three in One: what mystery!
We would sing our loud hosannas
now and through eternity.

SPANISH

*Santo Espíritu de Dios, ven sobre mí.
 Santo Espíritu de Dios, ven sobre mí.
 Tómane, cámbiame, lléname, úsame.
 Santo Espíritu de Dios, ven sobre mí.*

Both the words and the music of this prayer-song were written by a Presbyterian minister from Tarboro, North Carolina. The words were initially inspired by Jeremiah 18:1-6; a friend helped him set them to music during an evangelistic meeting in Orlando, Florida, where the song was first sung.

Breathe on Me, Breath of God 286

1 Breathe on me, Breath of God; fill me with life a - new,
2 Breathe on me, Breath of God, un - til my heart is pure,
3 Breathe on me, Breath of God, till I am whol - ly thine,
4 Breathe on me, Breath of God, so shall I nev - er die,

The first system of music consists of a vocal line and a bass line. The vocal line is in G major, 3/4 time, and features a melody with a dotted quarter note followed by an eighth note, and a half note. The bass line provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

that I may love what thou dost love, and do what thou wouldst do.
un - til with thee I will one will, to do and to en - dure.
un - til this earth - ly part of me glows with thy fire di - vine.
but live with thee the per - fect life of thine e - ter - ni - ty.

The second system of music continues the vocal and bass lines. The vocal line concludes with a final cadence, and the bass line ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

In both Hebrew and Greek, the words for “spirit” can equally well be translated as “breath” or “wind,” so it is very appropriate to address the Holy Spirit as the “Breath of God.” This tune by an English organist has become the customary one in North American hymnals.

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

Drawing on the phrasing of Isaiah 55:12, this joyful sending hymn was created by a musical Canadian father and daughter, beginning with the tune that emerged from a four-hand piano improvisation. The completed hymn later served as the recessional music for her wedding.
