"Jesus, Light of Joy"

Call to Confession , followed by Silence for Reflection and Prayer

Common Prayer of Confession

Pastor Janna VanderWoude

L: You send your witnesses, Lord God, who testify to the wonders they have seen.

All: We confess that we're not sure we trust them.

There's so much fake news and so many influencers—

We know not to take someone's word for it. Sometimes we're not sure what to believe.

L: When we cannot discern because we insist on our own categories instead of yours—

Forgive us.

L: When we won't allow those outside our approved systems to speak your word, Forgive us.

L: When our attention is captured or consumed by the wrong thing, so we miss out on what you are doing—Forgive us, merciful God.

All: Take us outside our comfortable places and set us free

So that we might once again meet you on your Way. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

L: Hear this good news: the Word made flesh is here to set us free for abundant life, here and now. Forgiven by God, you are invited to live in the way of Jesus.

All: Trusting in God's forgiveness, we go forward into new life. Thanks be to God!

Response in Song—110, v.3

"Love Has Come"

Love has come and never will leave us!

Love is life everlasting and free

Love is Jesus within and among us; Love is the peace our hearts are seeking.

Love! Love! Praise to you, God on high!

Texts for the Week

John 1:19-34

<sup>19</sup> This is John's testimony when the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him, "Who are you?"

<sup>20</sup> John confessed (he didn't deny but confessed), "I'm not the Christ."

<sup>21</sup> They asked him, "Then who are you? Are you Elijah?"

John said, "I'm not."

"Are you the prophet?"

John answered, "No."

<sup>22</sup> They asked, "Who are you? We need to give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

<sup>23</sup> John replied,

"I am a voice crying out in the wilderness, Make the Lord's path straight, just as the prophet Isaiah said."

<sup>24</sup> Those sent by the Pharisees <sup>25</sup> asked, "Why do you baptize if you aren't the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?"

<sup>26</sup> John answered, "I baptize with water. Someone greater stands among you, whom you don't recognize. <sup>27</sup> He comes after me, but I'm not worthy to untie his sandal straps." <sup>28</sup> This encounter took place across the Jordan in Bethany where John was baptizing.

<sup>29</sup> The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! <sup>30</sup> This is the one about whom I said, 'He who comes after me is really greater than me because he existed before me.' <sup>31</sup> Even I didn't recognize him, but I came baptizing with water so that he might be made known to Israel." <sup>32</sup> John testified, "I saw the Spirit coming down from heaven like a dove, and it rested on him. <sup>33</sup> Even I didn't recognize him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'The one on whom you see the Spirit coming down and resting is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' <sup>34</sup> I have seen and testified that this one is God's Son."

Psalm 32:1-2

<sup>1</sup> Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

<sup>2</sup> Happy are those to whom the LORD imputes no iniquity and in whose spirit there is no deceit.

John 1:14-18

<sup>14</sup> The Word became flesh
and made his home among us.

We have seen his glory,
glory like that of a father's only son,
full of grace and truth.

<sup>15</sup> John testified about him, crying out,
"This is the one of whom I said, 'He who comes after me is greater than me because he existed before me.'"

<sup>16</sup> From his fullness we have all received
grace upon grace;

<sup>17</sup> as the Law was given through Moses,
so grace and truth came into being through Jesus Christ.

<sup>18</sup> No one has ever seen God.
God the only Son,
who is at the Father's side,
has made God known.

The images of light in this text are drawn from the ancient Christian vesper hymn Phos hilaron, which dates from at least the 3rd century. (For other versions, see nos. 671 and 672.) That rather brief original hymn is augmented here in the third stanza by language based on the Sanctus.

Although the refrain of this piece names all three Persons of the Trinity, the stanzas emphasize references to Jesus Christ under various titles. There is also a shift in tone between the stanzas and the refrain: the former speak about God and the latter speaks to God.

*May be sung as a canon.

The expression "all in all," meaning "everything," owes much of its endurance in English usage to its appearance in 1 Corinthians 15:28, though many phrases leading up to it here have parallels in Hebrew Scripture. The second section echoes the song to the Lamb in Revelation 5:12.

This morning hymn is based on a Latin text attributed to a 4th-century bishop. It weaves various images of Christ as Light with light-based descriptions of each day's passing. It is set to a dance-like tune from at least the 15th century that enhances the energy in the text.
